Coming soon - all submissions through Submission Portal	ClinVar currently accepts submissions either through email or the ClinVar Submission Portal: https://submit.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/clinvar/ Starting this summer, we will direct all submissions through the Submission Portal. If you submit to ClinVar, or plan to submit, please register your organization in the portal now so that we are prepared to accept your submissions through the portal.
Known errors in the monthly release	We discovered too late in the release cycle that about 1300 RCV accessions were not included. We decided to continue with the release as planned, rather than hold up the release indefinitely as we tried to remove the gap. We will notify via the rss feed and other mechanisms when the data have been corrected. We anticipate that next Monday's release will be correct.

weekly releases	As you may have noticed, we have started to provide full XML releases every week: ftp://ftp.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/pub/clinvar/xml/weekly_release/. Please note from the _README file, the directory contains comprehensive extracts of ClinVar's data as XML. The files are generated each week as the web site is updated. All the content of the weekly_release subdirectory is removed when the monthly release xml is generated at the first of the month.
