Content

Brief	Explanation
tab-delimited report of conflicting interpretations	ClinVar's report of conflicting interpretations was updated to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>report only conflicts in clinical significance, not condition</li><li>report all pairwise conflicts</li><li>exclude submissions with a clinical significance of "not provided"</li><li>include the gene symbol, whether provided by the submitter or calculated by NCBI</li></ul> The last time the summary_of_conflicting data was provided was for the February 2016 release. The archive of those reports is provided in ftp://ftp.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/pub/clinvar/tab_delimited/archive/. New format: summary_of_conflicting_interpretations.txt modifications to variant_summary.txt	The reporting of database identifiers was modified. The bookshelf identifiers for GeneReviews were removed (because these are citations), and the reporting of identifiers for Orphanet was modified to be consistent with MedGen. Thus the number of reported ORPHA ids per variant has decreased.
InSiGHT	The expert panel InSiGHT provided 13 interpreted variants, including both novel and updated interpretations.
Blueprint Genetics	Blueprint Genetics submitted 663 interpreted variants, including both novel and updated interpretations.
Paul Sabatier University	Paul Sabatier University submitted 63 variants interpreted for X-linked syndromic intellectual disability, Peters anomaly, Rieger anomaly, and aniridia.
Nemours A. I. duPont Hospital for Children	Nemours A. I. duPont Hospital for Children submitted 28 interpreted variants in the BRAF, HRAS, KRAS, MAP2K1, RAF1, SHOC2, and SOS1 genes.
Invitae Inc.	Invitae provided updated interpretations for six variants.
